“ Goodbye my friend. I enjoyed our days together. I still remember the first time you walked into my house with Johnny. Busting balls from the get go. Always the wise ass. Brilliant. You will be sorely missed brother. RIP homey.

“ I was never just Aunt Shelly to Keith whenever he would introduced me he would say “this is my Aunt Shelly she is my Godmother “ That always made me smile I was so proud to be his Godmother
Keith love to read and often he would read the Bible he would call me and quiz me about things he read and if I didn't know the answer he would scold me saying “Aunt Shelly you are my Godmother you should know that answer”
He had a great interest in learning about Jesus as a Jewish child and man. He knew Jesus's message as a Christian but want to learn more of the Jewish faith of his wife and children
I was always proud of Keith and will miss him tremendously. He was never just a nephew to me he was my Godson

“ You are such a part of my memories. I cherished our lazy Sunday routine. My teenage years would not have been the same without you there. I loved that you loved my mom. You made her happy. She enjoyed cooking with you at our holiday get-togethers. When you called out of the blue this past New Year it felt good to hear your voice. Rest easy dear old friend.

“ Many years of memories, like seeing Dickie Betts in San Francisco and camping out at Green Acres for Phish shows. He made it a point to make amends with me about his mistakes of our youth and would make sure to check in with me over the years. Making sure to ask if Petra and I needed anything over these past 2 yrs, especially. I will miss you Keith! Love always-Heitsch

“ Keith I have tried to write some memories about you without crying one thing for sure I know you love me as much as I loved you. When I moved next door to your family I learned the true meaning of love your neighbor as you love your self and we did that. I am going to miss you so much. You would call me your second mom and it would make me feel so special that you love me so much .I am going to miss your smile and your craziness. You will be remembered as a good man good father and a good family man. Gone to soon I will never forget you.LOVE YOU ALWAYS YOUR NEIGHBOR.

“ One of my best friends.....we have so many memories from school and after. So grateful i got to see you a few months ago. we battled with each other and loved each other. Always in my heart. Love you always...

Holly - June 16 at 06:07 PM

“ So sorry to hear about Keith. I have a lot of great memories of times spent together. I can absolutely still see his smile and hear his infectious laugh. Rest In Peace brother.

Clint Eastman - June 16 at 05:24 PM

“ My Brother. Thank you for all of the memories that we shared together. We bonded the moment we met and became brothers. I will never forget your support when life seemed unbearable. I will forever be grateful for you. I will miss you.

“ I can see Keith pulling his children on a horse on a very very hot day . He had a big smile on his face. As Erin so wisely put it , they have a wonderful Guardian Angel looking down on his family every day. God Bless
