“ To my friend, Stewart, and all the Katz family, our family extends our sincere condolences. Reuven was a man I admired for many years related to his work in behalf of professional baseball players. I was always impressed with his intelligence, loyalty, humility and grace, and can honestly say he was a role model for me in my career representing players. Meeting Reuven many years ago, and having the opportunity on a few occasions to discuss baseball business with him, remain treasured memories.

“ An extraordinary loss of the most extraordinary man. His life, actions and generosity shaped the lives of many throughout his lifetime. He was a man of the highest moral and ethical integrity; kind beyond measure to those who needed a helping hand. He leaves an indelible mark on each of us who was blessed to know and love him. May God wrap His arms around Sharon, Stewart and their families, give them peace and comfort and sustain them in the days to come.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Katz family. Though I did not know Reuven well, I did enjoy conversing with him and his wife during the previous yearly Wyler holiday parties. I pray that God comforts his family and friends in their time of loss.
