

Alan Lee Guttman

September 30, 1935 - June 19, 2021

Alan Lee Guttman, 85, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away at home on June 19, 2021.

Alan was a loving and supportive husband, father, and grandfather who always strove for the best for his family. Professionally, Alan was a caring, dedicated, and highly respected physician. He began his career in medicine as a Captain in the USAF and then worked in private practice as an ENT surgeon in Cincinnati for nearly 30 years.

In retirement, Alan was able to pursue his passion for farming and enjoyed few things more than spending time working on his farm in Kentucky.

Alan was preceded in death by his wife Judy and is survived by his children Nancy (Mark Litzinger) and David (Pauline Wang) and grandchildren Jonathan and Clare Litzinger and Morgan, Zachary, and Kevin Guttman.

“ I was so glad to have Dr. Gutman to perform my ear drum transplant.
I was married to John McClain and he beat my face, head and ear badly. I was hospitalized because of the damage. The hospital referred me to Dr. Gutman. Dr. Gutman was so understanding and kind. He transplanted a parchment paper First and my body rejected it. The second surgery he use one of my neck muscles. It was successful. I'm 70 years old now and wish he was alive so I could thank him again. He was the Best Doctor!!!

“ I just noticed that Dr. Guttman has passed away
He was a wonderful man I am 76 now and I remember him from his practice in Clifton with Peerless and Sirken-- Nobody could figure out what I had but I was very ill when I was 19 I was so lucky my sister was an RN and she told me to go to Dr.
Guttman after literally going for months feeling terrible he had me go to Jewish and get blood work Turned out to be Mono Sounds simple enough but no one told me to check further . Besides putting my Mom's anxiety to rest (and mine) He was so very kind and understanding (thanks also for getting me out of my physical for the Draft Board) Which I was able to avoid going to war--As he said to me "you are too sick for any physical and anyway you don't want that war Do you ???

Thanks Doc rest in peace and I am certain you are in a much better place
Hope to see you someday

“ One of the greatest suture doctors in Cincinnati. After a serious car accident in 1971 he took care of me, and months later operated on my nose, minimal scaring, great job, great man and wonderful doctor.
