“ Ann was my mother's cousin. She always prided in being the "baby" of the family. I began to phone Ann during the pandemic. She always spoke about her son's and was always learning new things at her place of residence. I will miss our conversations.

“ As family, I remember all the many good times we all had over the many years with Ann, Wally, Mark and Rick. I am saddened at her death, but I know now she is with HaShem and is looking down on her two wonderful sons with a smile and a light that will carry them thru this difficult time in their lives. Doug and Carolyn and family you all have been so supportive with your mitzvahs to Ann over the years. Please let G-d comfort each of us during this loss of a beautiful soul who will be a blessing to our memories for the rest of our lives.
