“ Atarah was my Guild Adjudicator in Seattle in 2014. She and I kept in touch after that by phone and snail mail. We would share teaching experiences and favorite musical compositions with one another. In the summer of 2016 Atarah and I gave a duet piano recital at my church, Tibbetts United Methodist Church in West Seattle. The audience consisted of a number of my piano students and their families in addition to church members as well as relatives of Atarah. We played compositions by Dvorak, Faure as well as the Jewish Polish composer, Moritz Moszkowski. It was indeed a enjoyable experience playing together with her and meeting her immediate family. During the height of the pandemic I called Atarah to check on how she was coping. She was very upbeat but bemoaned the fact that she wasn't able to teach in person lessons at that time. I was saddened at the news of her passing but am very confident that she is still performing on a heavenly grand piano.
Godspeed, Atarah,
Your fellow teacher and friend,

“ Atarah was a wonderful lady, whom I had the pleasure of meeting through my work at MSJ. She had been an adjunct there in the past, and shared many wonderful stories, memories, and even shared some of her perspective on music, where it has been, and where it is going. She is missed!

“ Ms. J has been a beloved piano teacher for many students and a treasured member of our Peaslee family since 2016 when Angela Pancella brought her into our community. Her students have always spoken very highly of her, emphasizing what a wonderful teacher she was and the way she fostered a love for music in each of them. Ms. J enjoyed sharing stories from her past like when she attended her first group piano lesson in the Bronx for only a nickel! Last November, Ms. J celebrated her 92nd birthday with us here at Peaslee. We are all so grateful to have had such a beautiful and special person touch our lives. Ms. J will be dearly missed, and every time one of her students plays a song we will keep her memory alive and we will cherish all that she gave us.

*With love and condolences,

“ Atarah taught our son Ben from age 5 for 8 years. Ben loved Atarah and she loved him, but she held him to high standards and would not let him get away with playing by ear, as he could do without fully reading the music. She insisted and he grew. She was always a positive, cheerful person and a wonderful teacher. We were so impressed that she dedicated herself to the underserved children at Peaslee Piano Project, even as she found it harder to get around. She will be missed by so many.

So sorry this post is late. Just happen to see her name on google. Mrs. Jablonski was my high school piano teacher from UC and at Mt. St. Joseph. She was a great piano teacher and loved her piano students. I had the honor of playing a piano duet with her at my Senior Recital. Sorry to hear about your loss. A very dedicated teacher. “ Mrs. J, as we called her, was just the right person to teach me just the right things while attending The College Of Mt. St. Joseph in Cincinnati, Ohio. She so very quickly sensed how to bring out my ultimate best while gently mothering me as a young girl who was away from home for the first time in my life. She gave all she had with great heart and enthusiasm. She was sincere, sharp witted and professional. We spoke on the phone late last fall. Strong as ever, she was STILL that person I came to know and love while pursuing my BA. Her voice sounded exactly the same as it did in 1974. As always, she amazed me. Thank you for making the world a better place for me and all that you so lovingly mentored through this life. Fly high Mrs. J. I'll always love you.

“ Atarah was my piano teacher for the last 12 years (and I'm only 20). She taught me everything I know about music, practice, dedication, and a love for performance. Her passion and wisdom was unmatched and, as I've seen in person, her love for her students left a legacy that will go on for many many years. She will be greatly missed by so many families and musicians.

“ Atarah was a dear, kind and loving woman. I met her at SHul about 20 years ago. Atarah was upbeat, always looking at the bright side of everything. I shall miss her stories, her music and sweet disposition. Her family was blessed to have her as their mother, grandmother, sister and rest of the misbooken. I hope there is a piano waiting for her - that will be a heaven for her!
