“ Barb and I had a special type of friendship as we were longtime family friends from many years ago which evolved into a connection of feeling that she was my "big sister". She always offered good suggestions when we shared our many life experiences together.

We didn't see each other on a weekly basis, but whenever we got together, we always picked up where we left off. As time went on, our age difference was less relevant as we always had things to talk about and have a fun time together. I will miss her so much as it isn't about the quantity of times, but the quality of our times together that I will always cherish!!

“ I will always remember Barb as smiling, pretty, and fun to be with. Considerate of others. She was a good friend and a good neighbor.
