“ I had the privilege of being Barry’s cardiologist for many years. He always kept his spirits bright and optimism high. No matter how sick he took the time to ask about me, Robyn and my family. He will always be a part of my heart and soul.

“ Although Barry and I have not kept in touch since elementary school at Losantiville, he was one of the nicest guys in our class. I have often wondered how Barry has been doing over the years. Indeed, I was just speaking about him and our Losantiville days this past week recounting the mischief he and I used to get into with our other friends. I hope his memory will always be a blessing. My sincere condolences to Barry's entire family. I will always remember him with only fond memories!

Barry and I were born in February 5th and shared the nursery at Jewish Hospital. He came in my store for a visit and we had a good kibbutz. We have texted each other and so I was aware he had health issues. God bless Barry and his family. Tempus Fugit
