“ We have so many fond memories of Barry and Arlene. Arnie is a childhood friend of Barry. I met Barry and Arlene when they were dating and Arnie and I were dating. We had our kids at the same time and had many memories of those days. We're sorry we missed both their services; but did not know of Arlene's passing until we found Barry's obituary. Our best wishes and prayers go out to their family. A wonderful couple gone too soon. Arnie & Marianne Williger

So sorry to hear of Barry's passing. We were classmates at the Chofetz Chaim Hebrew Day School. With our class being small, we felt close to each other as we progressed from one grade to the next. We were also classmates at Woodward High School and saw each other at reunions. I also knew his parents. Leon married Rita, my dance teacher at Virginia Garrett's Dance Studio. About 20 years ago, my husband (Stuart) and I got together for dinner at the Paragon in Centerville with Barry, Arlene, and David and Jean Simmons and had a fabulous time schmoozing and chuckling over nostalgic memories. He was a good friend and a great guy.
