“ I came to know "Miss Bella" when she visited her daughter, Sylvia, at Meadowbrook Care Center where I worked as a receptionist. Her dedication to her daughter was admirable and she filled our lives with love and laughter. We didn't speak often, but when we did, it was jokes, laughter, and her telling me stories of her children when they were young. My sincerest sympathies to the family. I will miss her as much as I miss Sylvia.
