“ So sorry to hear of Beth's passing.

*I knew Beth from the Golf Manor Pool days.
She went to Schroder Jr. high with my brother Patrick. Maybe they will see each other in heaven.*

*My daughter Connie was a Cheerleader with Taylor.
My family will continue to pray for the McDonald family.
Godspeed in facing and adjusting to life without Beth.*

“ My condolences to you and your family. Beth was a warm, wonderful and kind person. She was one of those people who lit up a room with her positive and outgoing personality. I will miss her so much. She had a way of making you feel happy just talking to her.. there is so much I can say but I am tripping over my words because I am missing her already. Rest In Peace Beth.... G-d Bless You

“ Blue, Chrissy, Alex, and Taylor, never at a loss for words, my heart can't seem to tell my brain what to write that would be worthy of the joy and love that Beth brought to the world. But from being in our little office side by side for almost ten years, I can tell you that I always looked forward to seeing her on Mondays...Everyone who knows her immediately shares what a wonderful and truly good person she was. Beth's ability to find kindness and the positive was really super human at times! She could always see the best and she was an inspiration. She was proud that she had five favorite recipes, and would say how she couldn't cook, then bring in amazing leftovers...The most organized person I have ever known...She was supportive, protective, and beyond goodness. Beth was compassionate, and Beth was hilarious. Beth was talented, brilliant, patient, thoughtful, and she was strong. Beth loved being your wife Blue, and was crazy about being a mom and grandma. I will carry her in my heart forever. May each day be a little easier for you, and her love fill your hearts with wonderful memories. With love and sympathy, Jan

“ *To Beth's loved ones and friends: My deepest sympathy. We will never get used to losing our loved ones in death because as Ecclesiastes 3:11 says, we were created with everlasting life in view. But may you find comfort in knowing that Almighty God has promised that soon he will swallow up death forever along with the pain that it brings. (Isaiah 25:8) God has also promised that he will return Beth to you as it says at John 5:28,29. You can also learn ore about what happens when a loved one dies at JW.org. My most sincere condolences during these difficult days.

“ I will always cherish the memories I have of growing up in Golf Manor and playing together. You were always so positive and full of energy. G-d must have needed another angel in heaven when he chose you.

I am sending my deepest condolences to your beautiful family.
