“ I remember being a teenager and Betty so kindly and enthusiastically welcomed me into her home. I always admired her spiritedness and was amazed by how much energy she contained. And she made my wonderful life long friend Sindy and I am eternally grateful for this.

“ What a kind hearted, caring women Betty was I had the pleasure of meeting her at Cedar Village when my father (Elliott Greenberg) resided their. They had a wonderful friendship and shared many of there thoughts and memories of family and friends with each other. Betty may your memory be a beautiful memory. I know I will always remember the 3 of us either having dinner together or sitting outside enjoying our times spent together. RIP beautiful lady. Love Shelly G
