BEVERLY TONKENS VANGROV

CINCINNATI-Beverly Tonkens Vangrov died on July 15 at the age of 93. She was almost as passionate about beauty and design as she was about her family. To be in her presence was to be surrounded by her joy, her sense of fun, and most especially, her kindness. Beverly was preceded in death by her husbands, Norris Ganson, Gerald Tonkens and Sherman Vangrov, and her son Steve Ganson. She is survived by her beloved daughter and son-in-law, Marji and Don Mendelsohn; her three treasured granddaughters and their husbands, Jamie and Brad Rogoff, Katie and Max Meyers, and Julia Mendelsohn and Sam Zeller; her loving great-grandchildren, Mila and Leo Rogoff, and Lucy and Zoe Meyers; and her sister, Janet Silverstein. Memorial services Weil Kahn Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Road, Cincinnati, OH 45249, Thursday, July 20, 11:00 AM. Visitation begins at 10:30 AM. In lieu of flowers, please send donations to J Street or the Cincinnati Opera.

“ Condolences to the family, may she be of blessed memory. Her presence at the Cincinnati Opera Guild meetings and events always gave them a bit more glamour, elegance, and gravitas. She was someone to look up to, to listen to. We were so lucky to have known her.
