

Bruce Weinberg

May 17, 1957 - September 23, 2023

WEINBERG, Bruce, age 66, passed away on September 23rd, 2023, loving father of Matthew (Jordan), Michael, and Griffin Weinberg, cherished former spouse of Joy Weinberg, beloved brother of Gail Reilly and Jan Lagomarsino Brummett, caring uncle of Pamela (Tony) DiDomizio, and great uncle of Elyssa and Maresa DiDomizio. Bruce is also survived by his beloved dog, Slim.

Bruce loved sports, and he loved enjoying sports with his three children. He loved going to games, talking about his favorite teams (the New York Yankees, New York Jets, Cincinnati Bengals, Cincinnati Reds) and he loved watching and listening to sports talk. He loved that his youngest son, Griffin, worked in radio and he would listen to all of his play-by-play and weekly shows. He loved that his oldest son, Matthew, worked in football and going to visit him and seeing the operation behind the scenes and interacting with all of the coaches and staff members. He loved that his middle son, Michael, would go with him to Bengals games, Reds games, and taking him golfing while living in Cincinnati. He loved having season tickets to the Cincinnati Bengals games and going with his three kids, every Sunday, after picking them up from Sunday school at Wise Temple.

Bruce loved his friends. He grew up, and stayed close, with his friends from White Plains, Boston University, and beyond. Bruce always said: Make new friends but keep the old, one is silver, the other is gold.

“ My name is Mark Pettus. I was Bruce's and Howie's roommate at Boston University at Sleeper hall in 1976-77. We had incredible alchemy and love for each other. He was loving, sensitive, aware of others, very neat, and very funny. I am grateful he, Howie and I were able to Zoom several months ago. I send my love and prayers to all who knew and loved him! His warm smile is forever etched in my memory.

“ Bruce was a family friend for some 60 years... A Good Family Man, sportsman, and friend to all who knew him... Bruce's positive attitude and enthusiasm rubbed off on everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him... In spite of his abbreviated time with us, his memory will survive his passing... May God Bless Bruce and his family at this most difficult time...
The Lax Family, (Skip and Jim) and Steve Pirri.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Bruce over the past 11 years. There was never a short conversation with Bruce. In addition to being a hard worker and a man of integrity, Bruce was a dedicated family man. Many of our conversations would turn from business to family. Bruce was so proud of his three sons and would always take time to fill me in on how each was doing. Bruce was a great man and will be missed!
