

Carol Berliant

July 1, 1935 - September 29, 2018

If Carol Newman Berliant (aka CB) had written her own obituary, she would have said, "She died, she was fabulous, and that's all there is to say." But as everyone who knew Carol would tell you, she always - always - managed to find more to say. Fabulous, yes. But she was also adventurous, active, wickedly funny, a world traveler, a fiercely protective mother and grandmother, a bridge Life Master, a connoisseur of hard-shell crabs (with lots of butter), and most of all, intensely loving of anyone lucky enough to call her family or friend. Picture her now on a beach, romance novel in hand, having an opinion about absolutely everything, including her hatred of obituaries.

She is survived by her husband of 64 years, Mark Berliant, her four children, Susan Berliant, Nancy Berliant (Steven) Tumen, Allan (Jennie) Berliant and Adam (Martha) Berliant. A devoted grandmother to her eleven grandchildren, Todd (Dayna) Mombach, Tyler (Elizabeth) Mombach, Hannah Mombach, Dylan Mombach, Sara (Tyler) Tumen, Grant Tumen, Emily Tumen, Elizabeth Berliant, Andrew Berliant, Lucy Berliant and Alice Berliant. Loving great-grandmother to Reese Mombach and Emma Mombach.

In lieu of flowers please make all donations to the charity of your choice.

Service: Private for immediate family only

Tribute Wall

BS

“ Our sincere condolences

Bobby and Debbie Siegel - October 11, 2018 at 11:59 AM

RM

“ We are so sorry to hear this news.

Richard and Beth Morgan - October 01, 2018 at 07:41 PM