“ Dear Andy and Wendy,

*I'm so sorry to hear about your mother.
I lived down the street from you when you were little and used to babysit for you. I always enjoyed being with your family.
Your parents were very special to me.
Your mother was such a beautiful and kind person that will be missed dearly.*

With my sincere sympathy,

“ *We moved into our building in Newburyport the same time that Carolee did a few years ago. And Although we only knew her for a short time, her zealousness for life was amazing. She would say she loved to hold parties and could not wait to have one in her new home. Unfortunately, she did not get to have that party, but from what I have read about her, she treated life as a parity that needed to be enjoyed, and she did it to the fullest. She was so considerate for others even if she did not know them, She will be missed as our neighbor and our deepest sympathies to her family. Kathy and Alan “ Thoughts and continued prayers to Carolee’s family. One of our first times meeting Carolee was when she moved into her condo above ours. She had not been moved in too long and we ran into one another, we had the typical chats about the area, where she was from, her nearby family, etc. A few weeks later we were having a Super Bowl party with the Bengals and Patriots playing. We extended an invitation to our party and she eagerly said, oh yes, I’d love to come - but just so you know, I am going to root for the Bengals!!! She loved her Bengals! This began a wonderful friendship with Carolee. We will miss Carolee and her exuberance for life and excitement being able to live near her children and their families. Peace, Robyn & Matt Harding

“ This lady, our Carolee was a singularly beautiful soul.

I knew her for a too-short but precious period of time. And, what a gift she was to me on a personal level. With every encounter, she reminded me of my own worth. Just by smiling at me.

I would say to her, "So ... how are you doing?" And, she would say "No! How are YOU doing???????"

I bet that sounds very familiar to many people, here.

Love you, my dear, and thank you for the joy you spread so, so effortlessly, and the friendship you gave so, so freely.

“ I first met Carolee at Halloween party she and Michael hosted. She was the life of the party very kind every time I saw her and was the mother-in-law to my daughter. Prayers for peace and comfort to the family.
