“ *When I die give what's left of me away
to children and old men that wait to die.
And if you need to cry, cry for your brother walking the street beside you.
And when you need me, put your arms around anyone
and give them what you need to give me.*

*I want to leave you something,
something better than words or sounds.*

*Look for me in the people I've known or loved,
and if you cannot give me away,
at least let me live in your eyes and not in your mind.*

*You can love me best by letting hands touch hands,
and by letting go of children that need to be free.*

*Love doesn't die, people do.
So, when all that's left of me is love,
give me away.*

“ Though I only met Dave (and Karen) once years ago, it was good to meet a relative I didn't know I had. I met him thru his Mom, and Aunt Barbara-my cousins, who we had recently reconnected thru facebook. I truly sorry for your loss.. I've heard/read all the wonderful things Dave has done for so many people and I'm sorry I didn't have another chance to see him. Prayers for all who are missing him.

“ David, in Hebrew means "beloved-loved" . The life of David has been only his unique gifts of heart and mind, but myriads of friends express how his love was in deeds of caring, sharing, and enhancing their lives. David was adored, and adored his parents. Our sadness over his loss.. Our sadness over the many, many future years we too lose from the death of David,
