“ I first met Dave over a decade ago and I've always respected him for his character. I admired his passion and commitment for everything he poured himself into. Thank you, Dave, for all of the things you taught me without even trying. My thoughts and prayers go out to you, your family, and your friends.

“ Dave, you taught me so much about life. As a young man how to balance work success and family. Patient with me, as always, you taught me your love for the game of golf. In our days at Galaxy, you challenged me to think above myself and place needs of the team above my own. I will never forget our Red's game together; just you and I sitting in right field talking about your first Red's game as a boy, having attended Red's games at all the stadiums they played in. That was a special evening and special memory for me. Go rest high, Dave. You are much loved.

“ Dave, when you hired me at Texo in 1980, I knew immediately it was something special. You were my mentor, my father figure and most importantly, my dear friend. I will miss you and I will cherish many special memories. God speed, my friend.
