“ Dolores gave me a little book by Ashley Rice entitled Thanks for Being My Friend. Here is her description of a friend:
“Nothing can compare to the value of friends. They believe in us and challenge us. They understand our jokes. They go through changes with us. Go on adventures with us. Remain our memories, snapshots, and hearts. And everyday, they make our lives a whole lot more fun.”
Dolores and I were all of this to each other.

“ Dear Goldfinger family,
I have fond memories growing up in Cincinnati of Mrs. Goldfinger. I am so sorry for your loss. May God comfort you among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem. May Dolores's memory be for a blessing.
Love,

“Dolores often referred to herself as a "Jewish Professional" and I guess that meant doing Tikun Olam (making the world better) on and off the job. I first met her 10 years ago, after she had "retired" when she was buying and cooking food for homeless families with her own money and organizing Rockdale's volunteer night at Interfaith Hospitality Network. At the same time, she was Rockdale's representative at the monthly OTR Food Kitchen. She taught me to understand how some behavior of our guests which I thought was selfish and rude, came from an attempt to have some control over their lives. Dolores had unlimited empathy. She was also tough as nails, speaking up when she felt that others were not doing as much as they could. As a social worker, she had helped to settle dozens of Russian families in Cincinnati. Her caring spread around the world as she and her best friend, Joyce, spent time in Africa in a small Jewish village. Rockdale members still buy Delicious Peace coffee grown in that community. Dolores was a regular at Torah Study, even when she could no longer see. Her mind was always working. I never personally met her family, but I know that Dolores was very proud of all of them. When they realized that her cancer was incurable, they arranged a big family vacation at the seaside. Dolores was a bit nervous. When they came back, I asked her how it went. "It was wonderful!"
Yep. So were you, Dolores.

I was involved with Delores when she was responsible for the Neurofibromatosis clinic at Children's Hospital. She put in a lot of hard work and was responsible for helping many children and their parents understanding a complicated disorder . I will never forget her determination and dedication. She was always available when the parents needed information or consolation .To her Family I am so sorry for your loss .

I worked with Dolores at Jewish Family Service from 1989-1999. We were fellow geriatric social workers. I learned so much from her--about empathy in action, Jewish values, and NF. Even in retirement she was still a social worker, living her values every day and touching people's lives in a positive way. Her death is a great loss to the community, as well as to her family and loved ones.
