

Dolores Misrach SHIFRES

July 30, 2005

SHIFRES, Dolores Misrach who died Saturday, July 30 after a courageous struggle with cancer, was the beloved wife of Leonard for 58 years and the mother of Susan, Audrey and Benita. She was the loving sister of Donna M. Levi. In addition to her daughters and two sons-in-laws, Dolores leaves seven grandchildren, three nieces and a nephew. A graduate of Hughes High School, Dolores attended Ohio State University. She and eighth grade classmates from Avondale Elementary School formed a women's group that regularly met and kept alive their memories of 65 years ago. An avid gardener, doting pet owner and center of family gatherings, Dolores died surrounded by loved ones. In addition to her husband, Dolores leaves daughter Susan Shifres Smith of Atlanta, her husband Jay and grandchildren Lauren Smith Brody, Brian Smith, Blair Smith and Tyler Smith: daughter Audrey Shifres Glick of Columbus, OH., her husband, Harvey and grandchildren Ivy Glick, Rebecca Glick and Andrew Glick and daughter Benita Shifres Gettel of Tucson, AZ. She also leaves nieces Suzanne Baird, Michele Groene, Ricklie Vordenberge, nephew Scott Schiff and ten great nieces and nephews. Services Weil Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Rd., Monday, August 1 at 11:00AM. Shiva and evening services will be observed for three days beginning Monday at the Shifres residence. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the City of Hope, Adath Israel Synagogue or a charity of the donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

BD

“ 15 years today...you are dearly missed

Benita Gettel her youngest dtr - July 30, 2020 at 03:05 PM