“ I remember seeing Dorothy and sly together at the condo . You always saw them both together . I took a picture of both of them so Sylvia had it when she moved . And so did Dorothy. They will both be missed

“ The Myerson's were our neighbors living directly across the street on Stillwell Rd in the 60's.
I became fast friends with Rita and we remain close friends today. We grew up in a time where neighbors hung out at each other's homes, sitting outside together, enjoying each other's company. I will always have fond memories of my mother and Dorothy laughing together, and being happy. May her memory be forever a blessing.

*I fondly remember living and growing up directly across the street from the Myerson family on Stillwell Rd. in Cincinnati.
May Dorothy's memory be for a blessing, and may her family be comforted by the love of one another, and friends.*

I met Dorothy through my mom Dorothy Hodesh. They were life long friends and lived out their lives as neighbors. Talking almost daily and grocery store runs together. I am blessed that I knew her.

The last of our parents generation is gone. Taking with her a treasure trove of family history. We will surely miss your presence and knowledge.

I learned so much just in our last conversation this summer. You told me a funny and revealing story about your mother and father. With a Yiddish punchline.
