We know he is playing a round of poker with his late father, Rick Steiner, looking down on us together. He loved the outdoors, spending time with his friends, family, and of course, his hometown Cincinnati Reds. Duke is survived by his beloved brother, Ace, his mother Rachel Janeice Steiner, sister Jaclyn Montgomery, as well as his cousins Joey Steiner, Ricky Steiner, and Meredith Steiner-Burns, and his Aunt and Uncle Ellen and Corky Steiner. “ From the moment Duke was born , I knew he was so special. Duke has the kindness of heart rarely found. What an Adventurer He loved life there was nothing he wouldn't try. He had no fear. My beautiful son so loved so precious to me and his brother Ace. Ace and I miss your laughter. Duke had to make everyone happy and he did it so well. He was devoted to his brother Ace and his friends never letting any of them down. We were blessed to have had the time we did with Duke I cherish every minute I had with my son Duke.
