“ My next door neighbor Ed has been a pleasure to know ever since he and Lee moved to Escondido Drive. Also had a smile for you and an interesting conversation. I loved seeing all of the exotic places he and Lee had traveled to and some of his WW2 stories. Ed is already missed. Fred Haaser

Sorry to hear about Ed passing, I live 2 houses away and for many years being here side by side, but not just until today, when I was weeding my garden that I saw a lot of people coming to his house. a very kind and sweet man. We will miss him. Our condolences to ones he left behind. May he rest in peace!!!

Fred, Ed always enjoyed an opportunity to chat with you, a kindred soul bitten by the travel bug. We are fortunate to have such a caring and interesting neighbor.
