“ My mother (Elaine Bettman Pockrose) and I had the pleasure of visiting with Estelle a couple of times last year at the bistro at Evergreen. Both have passed away now -- I'm glad they got to get reacquainted for a short time.

“ Estelle was a wonderful inspired painter and painting teacher. I so enjoyed learning from her when she would sub for Rita Wasserman at the J. She was such a gracious and deep woman.

“ I have great memories of when I had a studio space down the hall from Estelle and Rita Wasserman in the the office building on Brookcrest drive in Roselawn.
I appreciated Estelle's dynamic Art and strength in what she created and who she was.
I will treasure knowing her and her support of women Artist and our place in the world
