September 9, 2003 - May 3, 2025

Evan Cole Michelman, a student at the University of Southern California, died tragically on May 3, 2025, at the age of 21.

Evan is survived by his parents, Karen Meyer and Rick Michelman, his sister Rachel Michelman and his grandparents, Carolyn Meyer and John and Roberta Michelman. He is predeceased by his grandfather, William Meyer.

Evan was born on September 9, 2003, in Cincinnati, OH. From a very early age, he was an avid learner. He attended The Seven Hills School from preschool through high school and graduated in May 2022. His interest in math and science and his commitment to sustainability led him to pursue a degree in Chemical Engineering at USC, where he excelled in his course work. He spent past summers working at 80 Acres Farms and at Michelman, utilizing his new skills, and Evan had volunteered for the Talbert House and Last Mile Food Rescue.

Evan was an incredible skier and enjoyed ski trips to Colorado and abroad, with family and friends. His joy of skiing led him to join the USC Ski Club and in his third year he served as the club Vice President. Evan also treasured his travels to explore this world with student groups, friends, and the yearly family trips. He enjoyed hiking and long bike rides.

Evan loved his life. He will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

Our deepest sympathies, we are simply heart broken. Hard to find any consolation words for what you are going through right now, one can only imagine. Cristina has been telling us many stories these past few days about her dear friend, Evan, whom she has known from Seven Hills since she was 8. About their friendly competition in school, but she admitted he was so much brighter, with a really big heart. How he made friends so easily. He will be missed so dearly.
