“ Faye was a great friend to our mom, Ali Schnell, while at Courtyard at Seasons. They spent so much time together over the years, sharing meals, activities, outings, or just sitting together. Planning to meet Faye was a bright spot in my mom’s day and we are thankful for their friendship.

“ Jan, Rick, and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I knew your mother through my mother, Dorothy Myerson. They were neighbors at AmberAcres and then at Seasons. Faye was always a bright smile, no matter what. Her positive attitude, intellect, and sense of humor was always a delight. When I last saw her at Seasons she told me how she kept moving- so true! No matter what she was going through, she kept her special smile and kept moving. She was a woman of valor. May she rest in peace and may her memory be a blessing.
