“ Gail was one of the kindest, most giving people I have ever known. She had a great sense of humor. If she was your friend, she'd do anything for you. We became golfing and playing cards friends. I got to know Ron/Charles over the years. They had such a special love between them. She loved her family. The past few years Gail was housebound. Luckily, last week we spoke to each other for almost an hour. That was very special. I will miss my friend, Gail tremendously. I will never forget how fortunate I was to have her in my life.
