

Gail Elizabeth Huttenbauer

February 20, 1940 - February 25, 2015

HUTTENBAUER, Gail Elizabeth (née Kizer), beloved soulmate of Sam Huttenbauer Jr., passed away peacefully on February 25. Gail was the passionately devoted mother of Sam III (Lindsey) and Holly and cherished grandmother ("Gammy", as she preferred) to Sam & Lindsey's children Sam IV and Annabelle, and Holly's son David. A former cover model, world-class figure skater, and top-tiered realtor, Gail brought boundless energy and a consummate thrive for perfection to every thing she did. She will never be forgotten by her family and the countless legions of Cincinnatians to whom she taught to skate. Visitation will be Monday at 2:00 pm at the Christ Lutheran Church, 3301 Compton Rd. Cincinnati, OH 45251 followed by a memorial service. After a private interment, there will be a reception from 5:30-8 pm at 3523 Paxton Ave., Cincinnati OH 45208, and all who loved Gail are invited. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Huttenbauer Foundation, c/o UBS Financial Services, 312 Walnut St. Cincinnati OH 45202.

“ Sam.I am so sorry.I was away when this happened.
Gail taught my Daughter how to ice skate,and when I told her about
Gail,she was very upset.

A Wonderful Lady,she will be missed.

“ I am saddened to her the news of Gail's passing. She will always be remembered as a beautiful, kind and loving person. Gail was a part of my life in the mid sixties, as I was just starting out in what would become a long skating career.

Thank you Gail for your coaching, kindness and love.
