

Galina Boym

May 28, 1928 - June 25, 2019

On Tuesday, June 25, 2019, Galina Boym (Yaglovskaya), a loving wife, sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and great great grandmother peacefully passed away at the age of 91 while surrounded by her family.

Galina (Galya) was born in Stepanovka, Ukraine and was the youngest of four sisters. She was a young teenager during WWII and was forced to evacuate from her homeland with her family. After the war Galina ended up in Odessa, Ukraine where she eventually met the love of her life, Misha. They were married on November 7th, 1949. A loving marriage that would last nearly 70 years. One year later Galina gave birth to their only child, Kathrine (Ekaterina). The couple was always surrounded by a wide circle of friends and family.

In 1989, Galina immigrated to Cincinnati with her husband, daughter, grandchildren, in addition to her mother, sisters and other close family members. She loved traveling, visiting new places and reuniting with old friends. Most of all, she loved being around her family and all of her children. Galina is survived by her loving husband Misha, her sister Ida, her daughter Kathrine, grand children Alec (Rachel) Bykovny, Natalie (Jason) Hennekes, great grand children Roben, Trevor, Vincent and great great grandson Leeland, other cousins, nephews and nieces. She was a nanny to Jonathan and Benjamin whom she also loved like her own kids. Services Weil Funeral Home, 8350 Cornell Rd., Cincinnati, Oh., Thursday, June 27, 12:00 P.M burial to follow at the UJC-Montgomery Cemetery.
