Howard, this is Eddie Dye. Please, accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your mother. I'm unable to attend her service because of work commitments but I'll certainly be thinking of you and your family. I remember years ago when she would make breakfast for us before we went to school. She was a fine lady and will be sadly missed. My Dad passed away almost two years ago and I completely understand your grief at this trying time. Please, give my best wishes and sympathy to your Dad, Bari and Shari. May God bless and keep you my friend and your entire family.

“ Bari ~

Your mother was such a special lady. A couple of memories I have of her -

I was invited to several of your Passover Seders and I so enjoyed, respected and valued participating in your traditions.

When I was going through a difficult time with the breakdown of my marriage, your Mom and Dad welcomed me into your home and gave me safe haven. It was truly a lifesaver.

And on a funny note, I had never seen before or still, such small tupperware containers in my life. That woman would save a tablespoon of any food or sauce !

She loved you very much and always, in her own way, made that evident.

My heart goes out to you with the loss of your mother.
