“ I have many fond childhood memories of family gatherings, many of which at Siciem and Sicik's home in Belgium. I remember Siciem's kindness and her warm personality; she always showed a genuine interest—how I was doing in school, sports, and other aspects of life. She cared deeply about the well-being of her family and friends, more so than drawing attention to her own challenges and discomforts. I recall the amazing food she would serve during our family gatherings, prepared with skill and love. I remember her warm laughter and joy. She seemed happiest when seeing others enjoy themselves. Rest in peace Siciem.

“ *With great sadness we heard of siciem's/sieciempo's passing.
She fought with incredible strengt and courage, but in the end she found her peace.
I will remember Siciem as a loving, caring person who was always there for her family and friends. She was always attentive and pleasant to be around. Also as a child I could very much enjoy her wonderful cooking immensely. She was a wonderful cook and especially her 'quiche' was delightfull!
Siciem's perseverance and positivity were an inspiration to everyone around her. We will miss her dearly, but find comfort in the fact that she is now free from pain and resting in peace.
Lots of strength to Sicek, Pamela, Brad, Taylor and Dylan.*

“ Giok Bie, my second elder sister, is a beautiful person. She was kind, gentle caring, and wise too. She was very neat, her house was spotless, everything was in it's place. She enjoyed cooking (before rheumatism made her give up working in the kitchen as her arms and hands were painful and weak) and in fact was a great cook and baker. She is rather shy and quiet but had many friends. Having Giok Bie as a sister is a blessing indeed. Rest in peace and be happy with the Lord, sis. Love you forever.

“ Yeah, my youngest brother started dating Giok Bie at his early age.

Let me share a bit of some conversations we had had with my late mother:

“You are not dating until you finish study,” our late (tiger) mom told us all when we were small.

“Giok Bie is the best thing that ever happened to Bin Tjong,” said our mom to my Vonny later on ❤️

Rest in peace, Bie 🙏
