“ Dear Bob.....
Only last evening did I find out about your father's passing and I was crushed.
We raised our families together sharing the sadness' with the happiness'.
Visiting him and your mom on Rose Hill was not always a pleasure. One of your dogs fell in love with my legs and marked their zones regularly.
We traveled together to joyful places. He took us deep sea fishing on one occasion when I fed the fish off the back of the boat which we caught as we circled around.
There are more memories than this document can allow and as I'm sure thousands can say.....I considered him my best friend when we shared our lives.
I only hope that his last few years were not filled with pain or suffering.....he did not deserve that for all the comfort he passed out to others.

My sincerest condolences to you and your entire family.....

“ Dear Bob and family,

My heartfelt condolences on your loss.

I remember your father's compassion and kindness over 30 years ago, when we buried our late mother Ellen in 1984.

May he rest in peace.

“ Bob, Gordon, Louise & the entire Weil Family,
There are no words that I could write that would take away or dull the pain you have suffered. I hope these words and memories will ease that pain. The final light has been turned off at Crosley Field. The World Series is over and a great baseball fan has played his final out.
I met Buddy Weil at Crosley Field watching a Reds game. Do I remember the game? No way because there were too many games to remember. The Weil Family were a part of the baseball fabric that makes up Cincinnati baseball. When Bud found out I was Iz Hodeshes grandson I was a friend and accepted as a family member of his from that day on.
Bud's Dad & Uncle's were friends and business partners of my grandfather. They made and lost money but the men were life long friends. And that friendship would last for generations to come. Our families shared all the good times together and stood together during the tough times.
Bud, you will be missed by many people. But, many people benefited by having you as a friend. The Big Umpire in the sky may have called you to take your place on his team. But in my eye you will always be a Cincinnati fan and a true major leaguer.
Thank you for being my friend.
Take 2 and hit to left.
