“ It's important to recall how well liked Gordy was by all his peers in Cincinnati. Like Jeff and Phil, I followed Gordy through N. Avondale to WHHS, carpooled those years to WHHS with Phil, Jimmy Heldman, Larry Eichel, sometimes Phil Schwartz and Bob Schreiber. Gordy's awesome tennis matches vs. Marty Ackerman at Kawaga stand out. From a great family, respected and admired for generations. He'll be missed and remembered by all of us.

Sincerely,
Tom Klein

“ My deepest sympathies to Gordy's family and friends. I wish I could have attended his memorial service. Gordy was such a valued member of the Wheaton community, including his contributions to the IR program, Wheaton scholars, Posse, and his nurturing of untenured faculty. He was so important to me personally, as well -- I'll never forget our long conversations during the years we commuted together from Boston to Norton -- his passion, his humor, his gentleness.

“ Gordy was one of my Wheaton heroes. He was such an important change-maker: for the faculty, for his students and as an administrator. He was a champion for diversity and worked tirelessly to bring both faculty and students of color to the Wheaton community. He was a wonderful colleague and friend. That infectious laugh made Park Hall a joyful place to work. I'm so sad that he is no longer here in the world with us.

“ I WAS A COLLEAGUE OF GORDY AT WHEATON COLLEGE FOR 25 YEARS. THE COLLEGE NEVER HAD A BETTER FACULTY MEMBER. IN EVERY WAY GORDY WAS AN EXCEPTIONAL PERSON. I EXTEND MY SYMPATHY TO KATHY, JEFFREY, AND AARON ON THEIR GREAT LOSS.

“ We grew up next door to one another on Rose Hill. He was a close friend all through my childhood and high school. Can't tell you how many baskets we shot in his driveway or how many times we played kick-the-can. A smart, funny and thoroughly decent human being, not to mention a fabulous tennis player. His late brother, Jimmy, and I were great friends, too. Rita and Buddy were like a second set of parents. What a terrible loss. My deep condolences to his family.

“ I remember meeting Gordy and how wonderful he was with everyone. Like all of his goodness and great heart that he has, his laugh was the best and so contagious. Just know there is another angel watching over you.
