“ I’m so sorry to learn about Greg’s passing. I have many fond memories about Greg growing up. We lived next door to each other until he moved down the street. We got “married” every week. If I remember correctly, Uncle Sandy performed the ceremony each week. Once we got in an argument and Greg threw a toy metal gun at me. It landed on my face. That night I went to Temple Sholom with a bloody mark and bruised eye. When asked I told that Greg threw a gun at me. He belonged to the same temple. I will always love Greg. He was my best friend way back then. We lost a great man with his passing. My sympathy to his family and Neil who was part of the Greg, Neil, Betsy and Debbie foursome.
