“ When I returned to Cincinnati several years ago, Judy and Harold reached out to me at family gatherings and beyond. We enjoyed going to concerts and opera at the movies, where Harold would inform us about an aria we were going to hear, "It's a helluva piece of music." And he would be right! I loved his droll sense of humor and learning so much from him about the history of Cincinnati and beyond. I will miss his smile and jokes. He was a lovely sweet man.

“ I had the honor and privilege to learn the business from Harold as he was LorAnn Oils' sales representative. We worked many trade shows and I always enjoyed company. He partnered with LorAnn Oils for over 50 years and was valuable to the success of our company. His knowledge and wit will always be remembered and missed.

I only know Harold via telephone and e-mail, always enjoyed our conversations when doing business getting wax shipped to Marinette, Wisconsin. Never short on laughs, and I wanted to share my condolences to his friends and family.

I was sad to hear the news of Harold's passing. I only ever talked to him on the phone as he supplied all my paper needs at Hilliard's Chocolates in Massachusetts, but he was always pleasant and we had our fair share of laughs. Always the nicest guy to talk to. He will be missed.
