“ I have a lot of good memories of “Hair Bear”. He was a great friend throughout our grade school years at Yavneh. He was one of the guys that I had nick names for. Some of my favorite memories revolve around visiting him and riding our bikes. “10 speeds” had just become popular and we would ride them around the neighborhoods (mainly Roselawn, Golf Manor and Amberley) stopping to see our other grade school friends along the way. One of our friends Dave Elovic (aka Elo) lived in Greenhills... which was a pretty good hike from our local stomping grounds. But that didn't faze us much, we had 10 speeds and we could go anywhere! It was a pretty tough ride... especially the Compton Road hill. Hair Bear was all for riding around with us (including the off road biking by the old Hebrew Day School) but he didn't like the hills too much... so I couldn't believe my eyes when he made it to the top of Compton Hill! You should have seen the look on his face ... he was so proud. If you are ever curious, drive “the hill” and you'll see what a feat this was for a group of 12 year old kids riding bikes by themselves. We would probably never get away with riding around like that today. But it was different back then... and we were young and free. Grade school friends like Harold, are imprinted for life... and we were all made a little better by having known him. My deepest condolences to you and your family Traci. May his memory be for a blessing.

“ Sorry to hear of Harold’s passing and extend peace and love to his family and community. The early loss of his soul and friendship is a great hardship for many. A good dude who factored into many memories of my/our “unique” high school experience. Helluva 1st baseman and power hitter to all fields 😊. Thanks for the memories Big Man - condolences to all. “ I met Harold when he first moved to Cincinnati and came to Yavneh in 2nd grade. We were friends throughout grade school, and in his sophomore year of high school, he joined me at the Skokie Yeshiva. We spent a lot of time together - I remember sleepovers we had both at my house and his when we were kids, and many summer days spent together with Harold, me and Mike Blumberg. We also spent a lot of time in each others dorm rooms in Skokie, and stayed in touch throughout college - the last time we talked was when he was already at the IRS. Unfortunately, we fell out of touch, but I am so glad he found a partner and happiness with you Traci. My condolences to you, Traci and your whole family. May you know no more sorrow and may his memory be for a blessing.

“ My husband was the most selfless person I’ve ever known. He supported me through all my good and bad decisions in our 25 years together. He was my rock and my hero. I almost gave up on grad school but he encouraged me and pushed me to finish my Master’s degree in Social Work and I am so thankful for that.

He took on being a father to my children when he had no experience being a parent. He was the best father for them. He was a loving and proud grandparent to our grandchildren and they loved him dearly. He was a hard worker and so very smart. He was the best at making us laugh.

I cherished every year we were together. We dated for 5 years before he proposed and we would have celebrated our 21st anniversary this coming Valentine’s Day. Though my heart is broken, I am so blessed to have had the years we had together.

I’m so happy he is finally healed, whole and free from all worldly burdens. I’m happy he is in paradise with G-d, his parents, our son, my father and everyone else that has gone before us.

Rest in peace my love. There will never be another you. ❤️💔❤️

Harold's father Jerry, was my federal government buddy when we both worked at EPA. Thus, I knew Harold and his mother Sylvia. I also remember Harold and his Yavneh reins from when our 2 kids went to Yavneh. The Nadels had good, kind selfless souls. May Harold's memory always be for a blessing.
