“ My late husband and I met Harold and Helene in Germany in 1968. Even though we lived miles apart, (Pennsylvania) we remained good friends and shared a love for one another. I'll cherish all our fond memories of our dear, dear friend. May she forever rest in peace.

“ We shared some wonderful times with Helene and Harold when we lived in Cincinnati. Although we didn't connect too often since we moved, I have thought of those times fondly over the years. May Helene's memory always be for a blessing. - Rob and Shelley Schweitzer (ME friends).

“ Helene was a blessing. Her smile and her sense of humor were always so welcoming. We will always remember the joy and love she radiated at the New Year's Chinese dinners. She was blessed with wonderful children and talented grandchildren. Her memory will continue. She will be missed.
