“ Heidi, Mark, Jeff and Essi, I just found out about Hank's death this evening. It was an honor to live next to your parents for 19 years and they both hold a special place in my heart. Your mom was always lovely even when we last saw her last, a year ago. She was such a fighter of MS and had the most gracious attitude. What a gift for you to have had Hank as your mom. I will think fondly of her when making her brisket recipe. Heart felt sympathy to you all. Peg Wight

“ Heidi and family,
I have known Hank for 30 years and never once did she ever complain about the cards (MS) she dealt. She always said she was lucky and very fortunate.
In the early years of Hank coming into my salon she would always say “howdy do” and then ask is today Saturday.
Hank was amazingly talented and so so creative. The few times I’ve been to her home I totally enjoyed looking at all of her works!!
She also was very kind and so generous.
She will be very very missed! I loved her! I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ My friends and I stitched at Absolutely Needlepoint with Hank. We found her loving, kind, funny, and generous. We will all miss her...her bling, her artistic eye for lovely things, her love of the Outlander series, and her stories. She was a lovely woman. Debbie Hyde

“ I am so sorry to hear that Hank passed away. She was a beautiful, creative, talented, generous person. Hank had a gorgeous smile, a great personality and a heart of gold. She was so devoted to her family and friends.

Hank was extremely close with my mom, Reva Ganson, for many years (decades!). Mom used to refer to Hank as her "baby friend" because there was a 12-year age difference between them! Hank attended all my milestones throughout my life. I loved Hank... my thoughts and prayers are with her wonderful family... her memory will certainly be a blessing!

*Love,

“ Heidi, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was the same age as me. You have my very deepest sympathy. I met her once many moons ago when you lived in Cincy. She was an absolutely beautiful woman inside and out. May she rest in peace.
