HILDRETH "HILLY" KATZ

Hildreth "Hilly" Katz (née Chernek) passed away on August 16, 2023 at age 98. Hilly was born on April 6, 1925, and spent her entire life living in Cincinnati, Ohio. Hilly graduated from old Woodward High School where she excelled in journalism and was editor of the school newspaper The Bulldog Barks. Only a few years after graduating, Hilly met and married her husband, Leonard, enjoying 51 years of marriage before his death. Hilly was an exceptional saleswoman, working her way up from selling World Book Encyclopedias door to door to being a district manager. She was an avid player of word puzzles and playing games, especially Scrabble and Mah Jongg. She was a long-time member of the Jewish Community Center and of Northern Hills Synagogue. Her proudest accomplishments were her two daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She leaves behind her daughters Barbara Tomaino (Peter), Janice Binkley (late Barry), grandchildren Dr. Molly Binkley Rimer (Nick), Joshua Tomaino (Gailya) and Major Jeremy Tomaino (May), and great-grandchildren Joy, Wyatt, Ellie and Myah Tomaino. Graveside services Monday, August 21, 3:00 P.M. at Rest Haven Memorial Park, 10209 Plainfield Road, Evendale, Ohio 45241. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to the charity of one's choice would be appreciated.
