“ I remember the night I dropped Jake off at our buddy’s place and was told I might not want to hang out with the boys that night like it was a minute ago. I got a text the next morning saying he had moved into the fourth dimension at my buddy’s house. I have just gotten 45 days of sobriety after 8 months of sobriety last year leading to a 6 month relapse that I could have not had a chance to come out of several times. Jake truly is one of my guardian angels looking out for me. I can feel his energy with me all the time. I have so many great memories with him. I could not bring myself to pour dirt into his grave on that traumatic day so many years ago but when I come back to visit Cincinnati in March, I will definitely be going to see his grave as a sober child of the supreme being and I would not be the person I am today if it weren’t for Jake. “Thank You Falettin Be Mice Elf Agin” Jake. I love you buddy.
