“ Mike Kreindler mentioned "the Goosey Gander Club." I was "Goose," after whom it was apparently named.

Jimmy and I were good friends in the 5th grade; I lived on North Crescent and he was around the corner on South Crescent. I wanted him to go to Camp Strongheart, where I'd been going in the summer -- in Northern Wisconsin. I touted the 22 rifle target shooting as the best part. It turned out Jim was a natural shot and far better than I was -- 44s and 45s out of 50, possibly. I was taken aback a bit but we stayed friends.

“ I am so sorry for Jim's family. The last time I saw him was several years ago at a wedding..he was a cheerful caring man who loved his family and network of friends.

Jim and I were very close childhood friends. We lived about 2 blocks from each other. We went all through grade school together, and I often went fishing and bowling with Jim and his father. I even traveled to Florida with Jim and his mother and father. We even ran away from Camp Livingston together. We were in a group called the "Goosey Gander" club and every Saturday we would participate in activities such as going to the Forest Theater to see our favorite serials or go downtown to ice skate at the Terrace Plaza. Unfortunately, we lost contact in high school and college. We renewed our friendship about 3 years ago after meeting each other again at Ferrari's Italian Restaurant. After that meeting, we would meet periodically for lunch at Ferrari's and we laughed and laughed when we reminisced about things we did during our years in grade school. Our last lunch date was September 12, 2024. I will miss my old friend Jim.

“ Uncle Jim was a huge part of my childhood - I loved going to the Sach's house, especially for sleepovers. Uncle Jim would chase us around and act like a monster - he even put socks on his ears once. He always had a funny story and always made me laugh. Many of use know of the "bore that rests lightly on your back" -- gosh he made me laugh with that one. And so many bowling nights with my Dad -- Uncle Jim and Aunt Jackie were the best and I so loved hanging out on Pinehollow Lane. My love to the entire Sachs clan!

“ Jim was truly an incredible person. Every time I encountered him, his genuine smile and infectious sense of humor would light up any room. It's hard to believe he's gone, and I feel such sadness in my heart. I take comfort in knowing that he's now reunited with Jackie, where they can share endless joy together. May his memory always be a source of blessing and inspiration for all of us who were lucky to know him. - Marlene Guttman
