“ During a visit to Ohio about 1 1/2 years ago I met cousin Jay, for brunch. We discussed many things; Politics, careers, hobbies, childhood etc. However when the topic of family came up there was a twinkle in his eyes. It was clear that for Jay, his family came first. He worked hard to build his business to support and nurture his family. We updated our contact information and parted ways. Jay is the definition of a Mensch. Sincere condolences to the entire family. May your hearts find peace. - Irwin Yablok

Dearest Michelle. I am so sorry that we all lost Jay. You were so lucky to have him for a while, and your girls. I have lots of Jay stories, each joyous. I loved Jay. He was wonderful to be with. Work with, laugh with. Even his cigar smoking was charming. I will call you and brag about Jay. Love, Tom

I am saddened to hear of Jay's passing. I grew up with Jay and his family in Bond Hill and Amberley Village. I knew him well, and loved watching him and his dad play handball at the JCC. My condolences to your family. Rest In Peace my friend.

Jay was my best friend growing up on Northhampton Drive in Bond Hill. While I didn't know Jay as an adult, I will always remember and cherish those childhood memories. My deepest sympathies to the entire Goldfarb family.
