“ For just a short time in my life, I had the unique opportunity to be Jeff's Wrestling Coach at the Univ. of Cincinnati. Then we moved apart, into different career paths and not revisiting our "war" stories until the past few months. I was so very lucky to have had the opportunity to share those stories once again before Jeff's departure to a wonderful place of comfort, peace and love. We will all miss Jeff's stories as only he could tell them! Coach, Jim Mahan
