“ My condolences to the Friedman family. My heart especially goes out to Nina and Aaron who have to navigate their adult lives without their Dad. A loving memory I have is of Jef during Covid. We all went to Ryan Silverman's house to celebrate his birthday Covid style and Jef played his musical instrument and was a great source of laughter and fun during such a weird time. May his memory be for a blessing.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Jef as a volleyball official for several years...believe I was one of his trainers when he first started. He was always a pleasure to work with, and we shared some laughs and discussed sports and family when we worked together. I remember back when he told me he had to give back some reffing assignments because of his diagnosis...I added him to my prayer list and had prayed for him since. He will be dearly missed.
