“ I was saddened to see that Jenny had passed. I worked with her years ago at Fifth Third Bank downtown. She helped train me for the job in Network Operations. I found her to be smart, and witty. We had many fun times working together. I had not seen her since leaving the job, but will always remember her pretty eyes, and her beautiful hair. My sympathy to all those who loved her, and lost her.

“ Some may think I'm just a dog. My aunt Nanny knows I was part of your everything and how I meant so much to you. so shes writing this for me. You were the best mom a dog could ask for. No matter how hairy, no matter how big you loved me with all your heart. I will see you again one day. Until then I'm taking care of dad we miss you terribly. God took the best angel he could find when he pick you mom. Ps I love you and tell Ollie hi for me.

“ Jenny was the kindest and most caring boss I've ever had the pleasure to work with. Whatever issue you approached her with, she would take the time to listen, understand, and help however she could. Without her in it, the world is just a little bit darker. I will miss you light.
