“ In 1979 I moved back to Cincinnati. Jerry and I had some mutual friends and went out on a couple of dinner dates. He said he wasn't interested in getting into a serious relationship until his children were grown. I had a lot of respect for his love and concern for his children. He seemed to have a great circle of friends and support. I know Jerry will be missed.

“ He got me into refereeing basketball games and I was able to do it off and on for 30 years. Without Jerry, I would not have done it. He talked me into it and I am eternally grateful. He was a good friend. Always had a good time when I saw him. I've just started talking to him again lately. Very sad! Tom Miller

“ Jer and I worked together at P&G for many years. We were doing a store reset in North College Hill. We were talking about getting anniversary cards for our wives, only to realize we were married on the same day years apart. That was at least twenty-five years ago and we never failed to call each other and wish each other a happy anniversary. Jer was one of my closest friends. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him. Love you buddy.
