“ *My sweet Joe
You always made me laugh. We dated in 1976 and I still remember our good times. May you have everlasting peace. Love always, “ *Joe, I was completely honored to know you. You certainly left an everlasting imprint on my life. A fun memory I recall was going down in the basement with Nat looking through a basement full of Gunne Sax dresses for high school dances! What a treat that was!! And of course your fun convertible Benz, Maven 😍. I'm so grateful I was able to see you one last time when Nat brought you the M-F, breakfast-lunch dinner meals that you always requested of her. She sure loved cooking for you. I know first hand how good her cooking is. Lucky you. I can hear her correct me now... She would say, no, lucky me, he was larger than life. And that you were!!! You still had your most hilarious witt, charm and an oh so sharp mind at the age of 92. I will miss you and I know how much your girls will miss you!

You were everything to Natalie and Hedy 💕🕊️*

“ Pop, thanks for the memories, you beat the odds and lived a long loving full life with three sons that really cared for you! Cheers! Way to go!
