“ My art teacher at Reading. With her guidance I went on to earn a commercial art degree at UC. Her Reading "winking" Blue Devil logo was instantly identifiable for years. Thank you Mrs. Brower! You let us artists be free and not restrictive. Rest In peace. 🕊

“ My fondest memory of Josie is when she met me with the kids at Frisch's for lunch when I was watching my niece and nephew while Glenn and Pam had a weekend to themselves. We had a lovely long conversation about art and artist where I learned a lot. I could feel her passion come out not only in her voice, but in how her eyes sparkled. She was a treasure and that conversation will stay in my heart forever.

“ I was very fortunate to teach with Josie at Reading. She was so kind and full of life. She loved teaching art and her students loved her. She never liked technology and I do not believe she ever used a copier her entire time there. Micheal Day
