“ Dear Julie and family,
It was such a shock to hear of Josh's death. What a terrible ordeal for your family.
It was kind, generous and brave to allow your family's tragedy to help (it is hoped) save other families and other children.
My sympathy and prayers are with all of you, Julie,
With fondness,
Harriet Kofta

“ Julie, I am so sorry for your loss. I just learned of Josh's death in today's paper when I read Shawn Windsor's column. I would like you to know how brave I think you are in making the situation public. I hope you will remember that we used to work together at Weight Watchers.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Josh was such a fine human being, and he will be greatly missed by all. I remember his smiling face and full cheeks from when we carpoled to Temple with my daughter (his friend) Alex Siegel.

“ I met Josh during my first year at West Bloomfield High School. Along with Bilky and Gibby, we were considered the best baseball players in our class by Coach Watson, who saw us as the "future" of the WBHS baseball team. We played "spikes-high" baseball for the next four years where our friendship grew stronger, and we even played during summers under Coach Gibson. It was a great pleasure to hear that he was also going to attend the University of Michigan. In college, Josh would provide favors for our fellow West Bloomfield friend group, like serving us drinks for cheap at Ricks, or inviting us to social gatherings only a few knew about. During our final year of college, Josh was over at our house in 1121 Church almost every weekend, where we talked about our high school days and watched countless shows on T.V. We'd hang out on the weekends and play basketball during the week. He was a pleasure to be around, and always made everyone laugh. He had a great future ahead of him, and I will miss him every day.

“ One of the highlights over the past 10 Years as being the WBSD athletic secretary was having the Levine/Buckner students in our athletic program. Josh was very special and I will miss him so much “ Julie, I received a tearful phone call from Samantha from Tel Aviv this morning telling me of the awful news. I am heartbroken for you and I wish I could offer some words of consolation. If there is anything Elyse and I can do, please do not hesitate to let us know. If prayers are beams of light to the heavens, I will be lighting up the sky for you and your family.
