

Joyce K Lane

November 7, 1932 - June 14, 2023

Lane, Joyce Karp, aged 90, died June 14, 2023, following a long illness. Beloved daughter of the late Joseph and Fannie Karp, predeceased by husband Sam Dallob and sister Charlotte Schulman. She leaves her husband Jack Lane, son Tedd Byer (Vicki Andrews), and grandchildren Stephanie (Matt) Fries, Jacquelyn (Frank) Lankford, Jarrod (Carly) Byer, Johanna Byer-Adcock (James Adcock), Zac Andrews and Dana Andrews. Stepmother of Naomi Dallob (John Barnes). Also survived by eleven great-grandchildren.

Joyce was a champion golfer and shopper. She loved spending time with her grandchildren, especially if it included shopping or a trip to the zoo. She had difficulty returning from a flea market without an armload of purses, which she shared willingly. Her determination enabled her to complete college when Tedd was in high school. She was devoted to her family, was a gourmet cook, and had exemplary style and flair. She cherished her friendships and was an active volunteer for Wise Temple and Hadassah. She leaves this world a less bright space.

Graveside services will be held at United Cemetery of Montgomery on June 19 at 11:00 a.m. If desired, please direct memorial contributions to The Alzheimer's Association or to Hadassah.

“Joyce and my mom, Dorothy Lerner, were golfing buddies. Joyce was always so sweet to me. I have wonderful childhood memories of being with her. My condolences to Ted and the family. She will not be forgotten.
