“ Unfortunately I am not able to attend the service today. I checked the funeral home yesterday and the information had not been updated, so I am just now (9 a.m. on the 4th) sending the information out to classmates. Many are out of Cincinnati as Judy was herself. I know that we are all thinking of her as well as her family.

“ It was an honor to have Judy as a friend, over the years she called to stay in touch. Since she's been sick, I called her often, through all the changes of facilities and phone numbers. She was very courageous, since her brothers were far away, she relied on her faith to see her through. She even called the rabbi at the Wailing Wall, a friend of her grandfather's, to pray for me! Our friendship meant a lot me, I'll miss her.

“ This is one of those times when the clock stops and we pay homage to the gifts and legacies of memories. Thank you Judy for Rabbi's prayer in the wailing wall!
